

DESIGN EDUCATION

Eva studied Textile Art at the Romanian Academy of Fine Art in Kolozsvár.

She completed her degree in Leather Design at the Hungarian University of Applied Art in Budapest.

THE BIGGER PICTURE

Eva's work extends beyond leather design and, in her free time, she enjoys creating sculptural pieces of art.

These works have been exhibited in several European countries including France, Spain, and Denmark.

The works are based around the theme of natural materials and abstract ideas, some of which occasionally evolve into one of her handbag designs.

See What's Happening page for art exhibition dates and reviews.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HUNGARIAN ARTISTS (MAOE -Magyar Alkotóművészek Országos Egyesülete)

Eva has been a member of this Association since 1997.

The group was founded in 1950 to promote the work of Hungarian Artists in fine art, literature, and music.

The Association presents shows and exhibitions in Budapest and in other cities across Hungary.

SOMERSET GUILD

Eva is a member of the Somerset Guild for Craftsmen.

Established almost a century ago, the Guild comprises a group of renowned artists and craftspeople.

Based at its Gallery in Somerton, the Guild also hosts exhibitions throughout the South West of England.
